

Dear Parents, Students, and Teachers/ Staff,

October is a busy month! To start it off, we have Week of Respect. Week of Respect is a great way to kick off our school character building theme of “Helping Everyone Respect Others!” Attached are the daily themes focusing on respecting not only others, but ourselves too.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to reach out to me: aschwartz@somerdale-park.org.

Thank you so much for your support and participation!

Sincerely,

Amanda Schwartz

School Counselor

WEEK OF RESPECT

Helping.Everyone.Respect.Others.

Monday, October 7th

Team Up Against Bullying!

To kick off Week of Respect, we will “Team up Against Bullying” by wearing team jerseys or uniforms! Let’s all work together to respect others! (Jeans are permitted)

Tuesday, October 8th

Be your own HERO!

Be your own HERO by helping everyone respect others and by making good choices! Wear your favorite hero shirt—remember, heroes don’t have to have superpowers like the Hulk or Captain America, they can be everyday people like firefighters and policemen and policewomen! (Jeans are permitted)

Wednesday, October 9th

Follow the Golden Rule

To practice being respectful, follow the golden rule: Treat Others the Way You Want to Be Treated!

I follow the Golden Rule by...

Wear your favorite gold Cavs gear for a GOLDEN photo opportunity! (Jeans are permitted)

Thursday, October 10th

R-E-S-P-E-C-T find out what it means to me!

Get ready to have a dance party to celebrate Respect! Bring your best, most respectful moves with you when your teacher plays Aretha Franklin's song "Respect!"

Friday, October 11th

Volunteer readers from the Esther Raab Holocaust Museum will be visiting to read to our Kindergarten through 5th grade students about respect, kindness, and being an upstander! (Regular dress down day)
